Women Who Made a Difference

Volume 3 is printed on archival paper. It includes over 300 stories of the founders of many Arizona communities and BPW members whose vision made this a great state. Several copies of Volume 2 are still available

- Read about Irene Vickrey whose passion and life work was at Besh-Ba-Gowah.
- Nathalie Norris whose class action suit made history for women with a landmark Supreme Court decision, and
- Mary Costigan, the first woman licensed to operate a radio station in the world
- Learn how BPW spearheaded working women's issues from the 1920's through the present day - women's jury service, minimum wage, and the Equal Rights Amendment.
